Our Sunday schools are filling up; they show an increase which is gratifying alike to both pastors, superintendents and teachers. One more Sunday and the quarter closes. Can we not make next Sunday a great rally day? This same quarter for the year totaled 9,463, this quarter up to date totals 9,244. We only lack 119 to be up with that quarter we have next Sunday. Can we not make it 100 more than last quarter. Let's try it.

OUR COLORED CITIZENS

Mrs. L. S. Henderson left Monday evening to resume her work at the Slater State Normal School, Winston-Salem, N. C. This is Mrs. Henderson's third year there. She has built up quite a reputation as a primary demonstrator for the state school. She will be accompanied by her little son, who is a very bright chap.

Mrs. Verna Rowley, of Ripley, O., while returning from the fair Saturday afternoon, fell from the car near Walnut street. She cut an ugly gash in the back of her head. Mr. B. F. Johnson had the woman kindly cared for until a doctor arrived. She was able to return to her home Sunday morning.
